About The Villa

This designer home is a gem in the heart of the most sought after holiday destination in Goa. Decorated with paintings collected from all around India and contemporary furniture, this villa offers all the amenities you would need to spend a relaxing time with family or friends in Goa.

The master bedroom, on the first floor, has a beautiful balcony where you can enjoy your tea/coffee or the sunset. You may also have butterflies and birds for company, thanks to the thoughtfully planted greenery that surrounds you.
